

Business & Technology Program: Business Administration Concentration

Areas of emphasis available: Finance, Human Resource Management, General Management, Marketing

Why should I major in Business Administration? The Business Administration Program is designed to provide a general understanding of the principles of leadership and management, the operation of organizations, and the interrelationships of business functions within the organization. The entire Business and Technology Program is accredited by the International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education (IACBE). Accreditation of the Business and Technology Program means that the courses, concentrations and majors are ranked as quality courses and programs by an outside over-sight group, and that the academic business program is functioning effectively (e.g., excellent student learning outcomes).

What type of degree will I earn at Grace University if I enroll in this program? Graduates of the Business Administration Program will earn a Bachelor of Science degree.

What kind of jobs would be available to me after I graduate from Grace University with this major? This degree prepares graduates for careers in for-profit and non-profit business as well as for graduate study.
