

Music: Worship & Music Ministry Concentration

Why should I major in Music? The Music Program offers a bachelor's degree designed to provide a professional education for qualified students pursuing careers in the field of music. This program is a training ground, a performance center and a laboratory and directs itself to the needs of the student with quality instruction, personal supervision, and varied performance opportunities. All programs offered are enhanced by the excellent musical talent and opportunity that flourishes at Grace. Small classes and immediate musical involvement provide ongoing channels for student activity. All programs are carefully planned to provide students with purposeful, realistic, and challenging learning situations.

What type of degree will I earn at Grace University if I enroll in this program? Graduates of the Music Program will earn a Bachelor of Arts degree.

What kind of jobs would be available to me after I graduate from Grace University with this major? Whether you sense God calling you to serve in church music ministry, teach in a public or private school, teach and perform professionally, work and produce music in the Christian music industry, or develop your skills as a composer, GU' s music program is ready to help you fulfill that calling.
