Library Resources

Library resources are available in the Grace University Library. In addition to the on-site collections, the university has a reciprocal borrowing agreement through the Nebraska Library Association of Colleges and Universities that allows students access to materials from libraries across Nebraska. Candidates also have access to materials in libraries across North America and around the world via the Inter-Library Loan service purchased through OCLC.

The library also subscribes to several key publications such as TESOL Quarterly (in print and online) and TESOL Journal online in addition to other print journals, including:

- Christian Education Journal
- Christian School Education
- English Education
- Instructor
- Language Arts
- Mailbox (Primary and Intermediate)
- Michigan Journal of Community Service Learning
- Middle School Journal
- NSTA Reports
- Reading Teacher
- Reading Today
- Science and Children

Grace University Library also subscribes to Education Research Complete from EBSCO host, which includes nearly 1,200 full text journals, over 500 books, and over 1,100 conference papers. Access to ERIC is also available through EBSO host.

Curriculum Lab

The TE department also has a Curriculum Lab with holdings specific to teaching. These are library materials singled out and conveniently located in close proximity to the TE classrooms.

Please review the Grace University Library site for more details on library resources. http://www.graceuniversity.edu/academics/library/

Other Resources include:

- university computers available to students
- complete wireless access on the campus
- appropriate classroom technology including SMART Boards, ELMO, and Apple TV
University services such as technology support, adequate parking, security, safety, food services, and housekeeping are provided for the non-traditional students who go to school in the evenings or on weekends as well.
